CATTY CORNER

Playing her song

Who's screwed now?

It seems Paris Hilton and Haylie Duff have both recorded a song called "Screwed," and it's causing some headaches, mtv.com reports.

Paris announced back in February that she had recorded the song as the title track to her much-hyped but still unreleased debut album. (The name has since changed to "Paris Is Burning.") But Duff, Hilary's sister, told USA Today in July that she recorded the song too and was trying to block Paris from releasing hers.

Name that tune: Haylie Duff (top) and Paris Hilton.

But Paris' version has been inadvertently leaked out onto the Internet, just when Duff was preparing to release hers.

"It's not something we put out," a Hilton representative told MTV. "It's a leak. And that's really disturbing."

The benefit to us: We get a sneak peek at Paris' lyrics, which include, "When you need someone/ To have a little fun/ I could be the perfect girl for you." That ought to do wonders for her image.
